

"International Colloquium at Institut Pasteur: Anticipating our future in Autism"

July 16th, 2009 – 14.00 – 17.30

At the initiative of Joaquin Fuentes and Thomas Bourgeron at the occasion of the American Academy of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry Presidential Trip to Paris

Organized in cooperation with INSERM, FondaMental, Autisme Europe,
And Pro Aid Autisme.

PROGRAMME

14.00 Opening

Michel Favre (Pro Aid Autisme's President, Autisme Europe's Vice-President)

14 .10 Introduction

Catherine Barthélemy, INSERM U930, Chef du département de Neurophysiologie et Examens Fonctionnels - Service Universitaire de Psychiatrie de l'Enfant, Centre Hospitalier de Recherche Universitaire, Tours.

14. 20 The genetic frontiers in autism

Thomas Bourgeron, MD, Director, Human Genetics and Cognitive Functions, Institut Pasteur, Professor at Diderot University, Paris 7

14. 50 Research at the M.I.N.D. Institute: gene-environment interaction and autism etiology

Robert L Hendren, DO, Professor of Psychiatry
Tsakopoulos-Vismara Chair & Exec. Director, M.I.N.D. Institute Chief of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, UC Davis, Sacramento, California President of American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry

15.45 Coffee Break

16.00 Innovative care and support in autism

Joaquin Fuentes, MD, Chief of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry, Policlínica Gipuzkoa Scientific Advisor, GAUTENA, San Sebastian, Spain

16.30 Discussion

17.00 Closing session

Charles Aussilloux, Professeur de psychiatrie de l'enfant et de l'adolescent, Université de Montpellier I , Président du CREAL Languedoc-Roussillon

Auditorium, Centre de Conférences de l'Institut Pasteur - 25-28 rue du Docteur Roux, PARIS

Free registration, until before June 29 2009 at the following address:
autisme16juillet2009@pasteur.fr - open to families and professionals