

IPA 2, Inclusion of people with autism in Europe. Improving scholar transitions from primary to secondary school

KA2 Strategic Partnership (ref.: 2019-1-ES01-KA201-065649)
Multiplier event

25 February 2022- Online

IPA2+ Multiplier Event
14:00-14:10	Welcome and Introduction to IPA2- Aurélie Baranger (Autism-Europe)
14:10-14:25	Co-validation results of the survey conducted in Serbia, Portugal and Spain- Sandra Martinez Molina (Polibienestar)
14:25-14:30	Q & A
14:30-14:45	Quick overview of the guidelines and videos addressed to students and teachers- Suncica Petrovic (Foundation A Thousand of Wishes)
14:45-14:50	Q & A
14:50-15:05	Example of implementation of the pilot course in Portugal- Dr. Fernando Campilho (Federação Portuguesa de Autismo)
15:05-15:10	Q & A
15:10-15:25	Discover the IPA2 e-learning platform- Maddalena Sebastiani (Social IT)
15:20-15:25	Q & A
15:25- 15:45	Understanding persistent absenteeism from the perspectives of autistic adolescent girls who stop attending school Guest speaker: Dr Ruth Moyse (AT-Autism)
15:45-15:50	Q & A
15:50-16:00	Next steps- Aurélie Baranger (Autism-Europe)
16:00	End of the meeting

Guest speaker: Dr Ruth Moyse

Dr Ruth Moyse is a Visiting Research Fellow at ACoRNS University of Southampton and an Associate and Director at AT-Autism. Ruth is interested in using participatory research and creative methods to understand and inform the education of autistic children and young people, particularly the female experience. Her doctoral research at the University of Reading explored why some adolescent autistic girls stop attending mainstream Secondary schools.