The 2nd of April is World Autism Awareness Day.

On the 2nd of April Autism-Europe went to the European Parliament.

Autism-Europe stayed at the European Parliament for one week.

Autism-Europe talked to Members of Parliament about Autism rights.

Members of Parliament are people who are elected to take decisions and make laws in Europe.

Autism-Europe started a campaign at the European Parliament.

The campaign's motto is called #AutismNotInvisible.

The campaign is a way for everyone to see what autistic people need.

You can use the #AutismNotInvisible motto and the infinity symbol on social media to fight for autism rights.

The infinity symbol stands for strength and for the Autism community coming together.

On social media you can post pictures and messages about Autism rights.
The posts can be about your experiences connected to Autism.

The posts can be about what you want people to know about Autism.

Rosa Estaras is a Spanish Member of Parliament.

Rosa helped Autism-Europe start the campaign #AutismNotInvisible.

Rosa gave a speech to introduce the campaign.

Cristina Garcia Corvillo is the president of MASqueTEA.

MASqueTEA is an autism rights organization in Spain.

Cristina gave a speech about how people don't understand or listen to autistic people.

Cristina said that we need to listen to autistic people's needs.

We should accept autism fight for the rights of autistic people.

Autism-Europe also asked Members of Parliament to sign a pledge.

A pledge is a promise to do something.

Autism-Europe's pledge is a promise to fight for Autism rights in Europe.

27 Members of Parliament support Autism-Europe.

19 Members of Parliament signed the pledge.
